OBJECTS TO MOVING ABOVE

State Department Likes Offices on First Floor Better Than Fourth.

GENERAL HALL ON WARPATH

Lewis Hallstead, a Democrat from Boone County, Visits Governor with View to Getting Postmastership.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The assembling of the departments of the state show on the first floor to those upon the fourth floor of the state house, just completed, is liable to bring much grief, according to indication today.

Secretary Mellor of the State Board of Agriculture does not like the idea of giving up rooms which the state board has fitted up in the basement under the present offices less than a year ago. However, Mr. Mellor will not go on the warpath over the matter and if he can not convince the state board which has the authority to order the change, that the Board of Agriculture ought to stay where it is, will gracefully accede to the wishes of the powers that be and go up to the quarters assigned.

Adjutant General Hall returned from a trip out in the state this morning and when told by Major General Hovey that he would be required to move to realms above, he opposed the matter in his strongest language. The general is a warlike individual and has been hoping that things would develop in Mexico or Japan so that he could lead his trusty soldiers into bloody conflict, and it may be that he will take advantage of this opportunity to turn his gifts on the board.

The board held a session again this morning and it is understood will stand fast on the moving proposition and has said that the orders of the board will have to stand, and if no one wants to go up on the floor near the deep blue sky they can quit their jobs, as there are plenty of fellows whose tongues have been hanging out for several years waiting for a job.

The proposition which seem to be the main point of objection by those departments which have had the use of a vault in the lack of vault room on the fourth floor for most of the offices and the probabilities that the rooms will be hot in the summer, though it is claimed by the contractor putting in the work that the very latest methods of ventilation have been used and the rooms will be comfortable.

Assessment Figures High. According to figures prepared by Secretary Henry Seymour of the state board of assessment, the assessed valuation of all express companies in the state this year is $206,864. Telephone companies show a valuation of $1,919,162 and the telegraph companies $23,757.

Hallstead Wants Job. Hon. Lewis E. Hallstead, one of the leading democrats of Boone county, accompanied by Mr. Whipple, a leading ranchman on the upper Beaver, called on the governor this morning. Mr. Hallstead refused to communicate to newspaper men the object of his visit, but it is intimated that he would like to succeed George W. Williams as postmaster at Albion and would like the support of Governor Morehead for the place. He informed the governor that he once rode on the train with him from Peterburg to Albion, a distance of about twelve miles, and that ought to fix things all right.

Files Corporation Articles. The Lodge Pole Irrigation company has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. Headquarters of the company will be at Kimball and it is understood owns a large number of small ditches and projects which it desires to have incorporated under one head. The capital stock of the company is given as $30,000.

State Engineer Goes Away. State Engineer D. D. Price will leave tomorrow morning for Bridgeport, where he will attend the state irrigation convention which will hold a three days' session in that town next week.

Muster in Guard Company. Adjutant General Hall returned this morning from a trip to Blue Hill, where on Wednesday night he mustered in a new company of the National Guard. J. Raymond Hogate is the captain of the new company, Russell L. Altes, first lieutenant, and Clayton B. Ramey second lieutenant. He mustered out the company at McCook Thursday night, and it is probable that the Blue Hill company will be given the place on the roster held by the McCook organization.

Notes from Nebraska City and Otoe County

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—On August 1, 1912, Miss Florence Baker, one of the chief operators of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company of this city, went to Atchison, Kan., to visit with friends, and William McKay of this city followed her and that evening persuaded her to marry him. They were married and agreed to keep the tying of the nuptial knot a secret until such time as they had provided a home and furnished it. How well they kept the secret can be judged when not even the parents of either couple were informed of the same until last evening, when they got ready to leave their homes and set up to housekeeping for themselves.

W. H. Graham, who owns and operates a flouring mill north of this city by water power, has brought suit against the Missouri Pacific railway for $2,700 for building a fill near his dam, causing the flood water to carry out the dam and he had to go to the expense of rebuilding the same. The fill was made in 1912, during the summer.

Elm camp No. 23, Woodmen of the World, last evening celebrated the twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the camp by a public meeting and musical at Eagle hall last evening. There was a large attendance and Dr. G. H. Schieb, national organizer, was the principal speaker of the evening. Miss Nellie F. Troutman of Kansas City, a musician and vocalist, participated in the concert and musical given.

The Bartling Elevator company, whose elevator at this point was recently destroyed by fire, has begun the work of erecting a new one with double the capacity of the old one and so arranged to handle grain in transit from their other elevators.

Word has been received by the officers here that ex-Policeman Joseph Miller and Mrs. Carl Schapers, both of this city, who were arrested at Boone, Ia., a month ago on the charge of violating the laws of that state in living together as man and wife, have been unable to get bail and are waiting for their hearing before the grand jury in Des Moines.

Father Carl Staff, who has been the priest at St. Joseph's Catholic church, south of this city, for the last six years, has been transferred to Cambridge, Neb., and a new priest will be sent here to take this charge next week. For the first time for the last two months the city jail is empty. The police kept it filled with tourists and vagabonds and the police judge levied a fine against all who were brought before him and where they had no money they were forced to work the same out on the streets. This has been the means of ridding the city of this class and causing them to give it a wide berth.

Mrs. Clara Handley has filed a suit in the district court against her husband, Henry Handley, and charges non-support and asks for the custody of the two minor children.

More than 20 men and women went from this city to North Platte and Broken Bow to register for government land. A large delegation left this morning and hope to be able to get registered before the closing hour tonight.

MEXICAN ATROCITY TALKED OVER WITH THE GOVERNOR

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Was it a coincidence or did it really mean something, is the question which agitated the state house people this morning when it became known that Colonel Richard L. Hargreaves, an aide on the staff of Governor Morehead, and also a non-in-law to Secretary of State Bryan, accompanied by Milton Alexander Kirk, United States consul to Manzanillo, Mex., and Colonel John Maher were closeted with Governor Morehead for a short time.

During the controversy Private Secretary Morrissey, who is an attorney and acknowledged authority on international law, was in close consultation with Colonel Maher and was questioning him regarding the episode in Mexico last week, in which the latter was arrested by Mexican soldiers while attempting to cross the river into the forbidden land. However, on discussion of the matter as related to the detention of Colonel Maher, saying that he had just called to her, saying his compliments to the governor. When asked how things were in Mexico he declared they were "worse than a fall" and that he didn't care about going back.

Hearings are set for Monday, when an effort will be made to deport the defendants, who are in jail. All are prominent cafe owners.

"Christian Endeavor and the Social Life of the Community" was the subject of an address given Friday evening to the delegates of the convention. The address was of unusual interest, and a large audience was present to hear it. Rev. H. H. Price, D. D., also gave a splendid talk on "Putting First Things First."

At the Friday morning session A. J. Shurtle of Boston gave an address on the subject, "Christian Endeavor Week," which will be the first week in February. He told how to carry on the work, the theme being "Increase and Efficiency."

Committee work, Junior meetings, Bible drills and intermediate work were discussed. Mrs. Condon, junior superintendent of Iowa, was present and brought greetings from that state.

The afternoon session was presided over by Earl Johnson of district No. 4. Mrs. Condon gave an interesting and instructive address on "What is the Junior Society Worth?" "This is the day when every one is looking for bargains, and the junior is the greatest bargain in the world."

Mr. Pool complained that the night operator works from 9 o'clock in the evening until 7 in the morning, when the law is that a woman may work but nine hours in one day.

Notes from Beatrice and Gage County

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 25.—The barn on the farm of Frank Sullivan, who resides on Cortland, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Four horses, including a valuable stallion, perished in the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will be about $1,000, partially covered by insurance.

Oltman Oltman, a farmer living near Cortland, fell from a tree while picking apples and broke his leg.

Willis Kelley applied for a writ of habeas corpus in the district court Friday to secure the custody of his 3-year-old son, Phillip Kelley, whom he claims is being unlawfully held in the possession of his mother, Jennie Kelley. The petition sets forth that they were married in February, 1905, had two children and were divorced in October, 1911. The court gave the father the custody of the two children, but the mother is unlawfully holding the younger.

An answer was filed in the district court Friday in the case against A. J. Nelson, chiropractor, who is charged with violating the laws of Nebraska in regard to practice of medicine. The answer attacks the laws of the state as federal to most of the articles of the constitution and state constitutions except the preamble. Chiropractic is an art of healing by spinal adjustments, and the Nelson case is the first to be brought against that method of treating ailments.

Mrs. J. R. Harvey, for the last three years a resident of Beatrice, died Friday, aged 56 years. She is survived by a son and three daughters. The body will be taken to Monmouth, Ill. for interment.

Thomas Will Become Rural Teacher, and Eligible for Office

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Dr. A. C. Thomas, whose removal from the presidency of the State Normal school at Kearney has been ordered by the State Board of Education, declared today that he has been offered a position as teacher in a country school and will accept it if forced out of his present position. As a rural teacher, Dr. Thomas will still be eligible as a candidate for president of the State Teachers' association.

When asked if he intended to become a candidate for state superintendent, Dr. Thomas said: "I do not wish the place and can't afford to take it, but if my friends force me into the race I will make the best fight I can to win."

Dr. Thomas was here to address the Aurora County Teachers' association. In his talk to the teachers, he refrained from discussing the action of the state board.

LINCOLN WAY IS TO BE DEDICATED FRIDAY

names preserved in colossal mountains of stone, the name of the martyred Lincoln is to be carried through the ages by the mighty path that throughout the centuries shall bear a constant stream of grateful traffic.

School Children to Study. The school children of Omaha are to give special study to the life of Abraham Lincoln on October 31, which is the day set apart by the Lincoln Memorial Highway association for the boosting of the big highway that is to bear the great martyr's name. The good roads committee of the Commercial club has taken the matter up with Mr. Graff with the result that the children are to be given special instruction on that day.

Want Decorations.

A movement is on foot for getting the business houses of the city to decorate their show windows on that day with the Lincoln memorial colors, which are red, white and blue, as may be seen on the poles along the highway as far as they are painted. P. H. Dearmont, publisher of the Motorist, has been placed in charge of the work of securing the co-operation of the stores and business houses of the city in decorating their places on this day. In so far as possible it is said the stores are preparing to decorate in these colors with the wares they are offering for sale. This they will combine artistic window decorating with the spirit of the Lincoln Memorial occasion. Whether it is red, white and blue dress goods, or red, white and blue bottles, red, white and blue candy, or red, white and blue ice cream, the Lincoln colors are to predominate. It is expected that 200 business houses of the city will co-operate in the matter.

Fireworks in Omaha.

An elaborate display of fireworks is to be given in the evening in Omaha. These will be fired from the neighborhood of the big bonfire which probably will be on Eighteenth street near the old Ak-Sar-Ion carnival grounds. Subscriptions will be solicited from the business men of the city for a fund to buy fireworks for the occasion. The Hemis Bag company whistle is to be the signal for the setting off of the fireworks. The bonfires all along the highway probably will be at their height somewhere between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Vice President A. R. Partridge of the highway association has asked that all along the highway the ministers of the gospel be asked to take for their text Sunday morning, November 2, the life and services of Abraham Lincoln, with special reference to the fitting memorial that is being planned for the martyred president in the transcontinental highway. The request will be made locally of the local ministers.

Bulletin from Headquarters.

The following has been issued from headquarters of the Lincoln Memorial Highway association at Detroit, Mich.: DETROIT, Oct. 25.—Plans are practically complete for the country-wide dedication celebrations of the Lincoln highway to be held on the night of Friday, October 31, from New York to San Francisco in over 3,000 cities, towns, villages and hamlets the selection of this great transcontinental thoroughfare will be dedicated to the emancipator, Abraham Lincoln.

Cities on the route will naturally have the greatest part in these celebrations, but there will be many programs carried out at other points where good roads enthusiasts are organized. The Lincoln highway is to be placed on the map for all time with bonfires, speeches, parades, meetings, red fire, banquets, fireworks and every form of outdoor and indoor jubilation festes. New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Canton, Mansfield, Gallion, Wooster, South Bend, Fort Wayne, Joliet, De Kalb, Clinton, Omaha, Denver, Cheyenne, Salt Lake City, Hawling, Reno, Fallon, Sacramento, Oakland, San Francisco

—these and hundreds of other points have all perfected arrangements. The programs will be in charge either of the Lincoln Highway association, local societies or of the boards of trade, automobile clubs or other social and business organizations.

Reports made by the national headquarters here show that the sale of contributor's certificates is rapidly growing. The Lincoln highway is to be built by proper subscription, no aid being asked of congress in its financing. Every class of citizenship is responding, and from many other points besides those on or contiguous to the highway.
